

Ace-Merit

Court Reporters, Litigation Support & Legal Media Services

Karen Volk, RPR

Karen Volk began her court reporting career twenty-five years ago in Rockford, Illinois, as an official reporter in the criminal courts. Upon moving to Chicago, Illinois she worked at Brunswick Corporation Legal Department for two years. In 1981 she began her freelance career, working in the Chicagoland area from 1981 until moving to Cincinnati in 1995. Karen joined Ace Reporting, now Ace-Merit, in 1995. Karen's extensive experience ranges from criminal trials to arbitrations to medical malpractice and legal malpractice testimony.

"I enjoy the flexibility my work gives me along with meeting the daily challenges and interesting people my profession affords me the opportunity to do."

Karen Volk

Cases of Note/Experience:

- Fen-Phen litigation

Professional Education/Certifications:

- Certificate of Court Reporting, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, IL (1978)
- Illinois Valley Community College
- Registered Professional Reporter (1981)
- Certified Shorthand Reporter, Illinois (1978)

Karen lives in Loveland, Ohio with her husband and two college daughters. After many years of chairing a community volunteer organization and volunteering with school activities, Karen now enjoys traveling, golf, tennis, has organized a reading club, and has volunteered with the Alzheimer's Association.

An experienced and trusted resource.

Ace-Merit, LLC • 30 Garfield Place, Suite 620 • Cincinnati, Ohio 45202
info@acemerit.com • www.acemerit.com • (513) 241-3200 • (800) 277-7165 • (513) 241-7958 Fax